BURY

"The Wilton Historical Society is proud to publish this definitive look at our town's past. It will be a much-used resource, moving history into the twenty-first century. Bob Russell shows great love, as well as knowledge, for his adopted hometown which he has served in so many ways over the last quarter century."

— Marilyn Gould, Director
Wilton Historical Society

"Bob Russell has given many gifts to Wilton, but this is by far the best! His intelligent, comprehensive and eminently readable history is a perfect complement to his years as First Selectman and his service on the boards of several Wilton organizations. He has herein preserved our past for the future."

— Kathy Leeds, Director
Wilton Library

"Wilton Connecticut provides readers with a lens through which to view not only the evolution of a community but also our nation's story. History is presented as nearby, personal, and exciting, with details and anecdotes to breathe life into a subject that often appears distant and dull. Russell's prose makes history come alive; it serves as a valuable supplement to any study of United States history."

— Marc Feeley
History Department
Wilton High School

"With honest historical research, a deep respect for the people, places and events in Wilton's past, and his trademark wit, Bob and his book will give Wiltonians a new appreciation for their town's history."

Norwalk's Original Homelots

above map shows how Norwalk's original home lots were laid out. Note the ancient ford to Norwalk Path, which passed up what are now Fort Point and Fitch streets. Towne Street, now East Avenue, ran through the center of the little village, commencing at the old burial grounds where the East Norwalk Cemetery now stands.

1748-1760……..HIGH POINTS FROM THE WILL OF JOHN FITCH II

To Matthew, Son:

20 acres, 3 rods that lies adjoining the homestead land, which he had formerly given him by deed.

35 acres at Canoe Hill
One third of the land at Huckleberry Hills

To Theophilus, Son:

5 acres, ¾ and 11 poles of homestead land, where I now live, next to the piece already given by deed.
7 acres of Upper Clappboard Hill
44 acres at Canoe Hill on the West side of the highway
One third of the land at Huckleberry Hills

To Bushnell, Son:

43 acres of the homestead land with buildings and Fruit trees
15 acres at Upper Clapboard Hill
Remaining part of land at Canoe Hill on both sides of the highway
One third of the land at Huckleberry Hills
Salt meadow called Canfield's Pond in the common field on the West side of Norwalk Harbor 17 acres adjoining Matthew's homestead land.

It appears that he has already given Matthew and Theophilus, by deed, large portions of his homestead land (probably at New Canaan) Would have to check the deeds to see how much was given at that time. Then Bushnell received his at John's death.

They all received one-third of the land at Huckleberry Hills
And some of the acreage at Canoe Hills

Perhaps what makes this so hard is that when land was allotted out to the townspeople, they all got a piece of the new division. Making it very hard to distinguish who owned what unless you can follow it down from the beginning, or unless there are plat maps of some sort for those earlier days.

Do not know for sure when this John died, but will was not proved until 1760 and was written in 1748. I am assuming that he wrote this will after the time the other young John Fitch died in 1748. Perhaps it was a wakeup call that his time might be about up also. I believe this John Fitch who died in 1748 was John, the son of Nathaniel. ~~Although some think he was the son of this John, we can find no indication that he even had a son, John.~~ No doubt, he WAS Nath'ls SON.

In the will above there is no provision made for a son, John, or his children and we do know that the John of Poplar Plains had 4 children born at this time, Nathaniel, John, Elizabeth and Susanna. Surely some mention would have been made of these grandchildren, or the descendants of John Fitch, deceased, if he had been a member of this family. So far we have found no other John Fitch in the records. All other children of the above John and Lydia have birthdates that are known. Why not a John if there was one??

We can now trace John son of Nathaniel down through the time his son John sells out to go to PA. So we know the line we believe is in PA comes from Nathaniel – never John. Think the term John Jr. threw a lot of researchers who never followed

Bounded North by Kelloggs (lot was Kelloggs and now Sherwoods)
Southerly by Sherwood's land
Easterly by the highway by Fairfield
Westerly by other tier of lotts

It would appear that John Fitch gave up his half of this lot between the Saugatuck River and the Fairfield line to his brother Nathaniel in return for land at Upper Clappboard Hill. Then Nathaniel turned around and sold it all to David Sherwood who apparently had already purchased the Kellogg property.

David Sherwood may be the one who married Sarah Meeker in 1708/9. Sarah died at Westport, CT so is in the right vicinity.

POINTS TO NOTE IN WILL OF ELIZABETH BEERS FITCH ELIS: 1786
written 1777-78

Has 3 grandsons:
    Nathaniel King, son of David King
    John Fitch, Jr.
    Gideon Fitch

Gives them when they are 21 piece of land in parish of Norfield, formerly belonging to David Bears, dec'd.
    to be divided equally

Has 3 granddaughters:
    Susannah Fitch
    Sarah King
    Elizabeth King

Gives to her son John Fitch
    House I now live in
    He was made executor of her will

Witnesses: Garner Olmstead, Joseph Olmstead, Nathan Burwell (Note that both Garner Olmstead and Nathan Burwell were on the list of Tories along with a John Fitch.)

Garner and Joseph forgot that they witnessed the will so it was never proven. Wonder if there might have been some bad feelings by that time because of the Tory situation and they were on the outs with John when the Eliz. Elis finally died.

Justice of the Peace was Daniel Duncan

At a Court of Probate held in Fairfield, March 20, 1786

This Court orders the whole Estate of Elizabeth Ellas, dec'd. late of Norwalk to be distributed two thirds of the said Estate to John Fitch of Norwalk one-third to the heirs of Elizabeth King, late of Fairfield, dec'd Nathaniel Fitch King, Sarah King, Elizabeth King in equal proportion.

And this Court doth _________ appoint and fully empower Mesrs. David Coley and Samuel Duncan of Fairfield, and Matthew Sherwood of Norwalk all _________ to make distribution accordingly.

Order of Court
_____ Joseph Darling ______

Note in this last part that
    Elizabeth King, wife of David King had died by 1786
    Notice also that Matthew Sherwood was to help make distribution.

Is this the same Matthew Sherwood who went to PA with John Fitch?? Or is this a different Matthew Sherwood from the Danbury one who moved to PA. Being of Danbury might just mean in that township which was right next to the Fairfield township. More study on this needed.

Nathaniel Fitch 1682-1743

Will written April 5, 1742 ………do not have an actual copy of this will

Mentions: Wife Anna, (third wife) son John of Norwalk son Lindel of Norwalk
dau. Elizabeth, wife of Jabez Crane daus. Abigail and Mary

April 5, 1742, same day as will was written we find this deed:

Nathaniel to son John:
15 acres at Popple Plains
near the foot of Chestnut Hill
North by said John Fitch's land and land of John Stuart
East by land of Nathaniel Finch and John Bears
West by highway
South by said John Fitch's land and land of John Bears

Since this uses the word "said" John Fitch we assume that is son John.
This John's mother was probably Elizabeth, the first wife of Nathaniel
We have deed with Nathaniel and Elizabeth's name on dated 1719/20.
Nathaniel's second marriage could not have been until about 1729
Third marriage until 1738.

Will of John Fitch who died in 1748:
mentions wife, Elizabeth
Eldest son, Nathaniel
2nd son, John
Daus. Elizabeth and Susanna

Meaning that all 4 of these children would have been born before 1748
Elizabeth married David King in 1767
We think John married Elizabeth Lockwood in 1766
Nathaniel died in 1766
Nothing more on Susanna

Shows that John left 4 very young children when he died
In his will he left:

To eldest son, Nathaniel:
At 21 years, Dwelling house barns, homestead land
½ boggs and Wolf Swamp, and 3 acres of woodland

To 2nd son John at age if 21 all remaining parts of his land except for 16 acres in my right in commonage that went to the daughters

To the daughters at 18 years of age
16 acres lying adjoyning Fitch's Bogg bounded Easterly by Zurial Raymonds and bogg
Southerly by bogg's Westerly land (a question about this)
The 16 acres to be divided equally among the 2 of them

Note above that John's father Nathaniel, left him 15 acres at Popple Plains. We can follow the ownership of this land by land contracts. I believe this was part of what was left to eldest son, Nathaniel who apparently died in 1766 and brother, John, was the executor of his estate who must have been 21 at the time to be able to do this. (meaning born before 1745) (meaning that Nathaniel would have been born earlier than that as he was the eldest son)

December 15, 1766:

> Nathaniel Fitch of Norwalk died. Administration of his estate was given to John Fitch, Jr. or Norwalk.

Distribution of the estate of Nathaniel Fitch who died in 1766.

His estate was not distributed until 1786 when Elizabeth Ellis died or at least that is the date on the distribution. Note below then the 1768 exchanges of land.

> To bro. John Fitch, 10 acres, 106 rods on Fitch's Plain, 2 acres of swamp at South end of plain, 2 acres of wood at north end of plain, and 4 acres and 3 rods of swamp called Woolf Swamp (Do not have actual distribution paper to see if indeed the writing says "Fitch's Plain" .
> To sis. Elizabeth, wife of David King 2/3 of homestead, house and barn.

October 28, 1765…….Elizabeth Fitch of Norwalk for 66 pounds to my brother, Nathaniel Fitch, 16 acres at Poplar Plain. (Nathaniel died in 1766) (Elizabeth, apparently over 18 now must have sold her inheritance to brother Nathaniel)

January 21, 1768……David King and his wife Elizabeth to John Fitch 23 acres excepting the one half of the one third part at the death of Elizabeth Elis, wife of Henry Elis.(This is perhaps the homestead land that had been given to Elizabeth at the death of her brother but still held in reserve for widow mother who was still living in 1768.

January 21, 1768…….John Fitch for 20 pounds to David King, 3 acres at Poplar Plain.

January 21, 1768 …….John Fitch of Norwalk, to my sister, Elizabeth King, wife of David King, 16 acres at Poplar Plain.

January 21, 1768……..John Fitch of Norwalk to David King and Elizabeth, his wife, 1 acre on the South side of Woolf Swamp.

January 21, 1768………John Fitch of Norwalk to David King and Elizabeth, his wife, 12 ¼ acres, 2 rods, 23 links at Woolf Swamp.

January 24, 1787………John Fitch, of Norwalk, for 160 pounds to James Fillio, of Norwalk, 19 acres at Popple Plain. This appears to be the last deed of this John Fitch, son of John and Elizabeth.

Interesting the use of Popple Plain, and Poplar Plain, and the passing around of this property. I believe this clearly indicates that the John who went to PA was of the family of Nathaniel Fitch (1682-1743). Perhaps there are other deeds that are lost as all this seems very complicated but think that by the giving of 15 acres at Popple plains to his son John, Nathaniel appears to be the father of this line.

Nathaniel gives the land to his son John who then died in 1748 and gives it to his small and eldest son, Nathaniel, who promptly dies in 1766, leaving the land to go to John and Elizabeth. Whatever happened to Susanna is up for grabs as we do not find her mentioned again. They seem to pass it around. But finally John sells to James Fillio (who may have been a fellow Tory) and then moves to PA after the death of his mother.

Also by the year 1786 we find that Elizabeth, wife of David King has died. The will of the mother had not been proven and so the court ordered distribution and at that time in the order of distribution Elizabeth's share was to go to her heirs "Elizabeth King, late of Norwalk, dec'd".

One other thing to check on is the trading of properties by brothers
    Nathaniel Fitch and John Fitch in 1731
    Though at first I thought this might be a Popple/Poplar Plains property after checking it over it appears that Nathaniel got property between the Saugatuck River and the Fairfield line from John in exchange for some of his Clabboard Hill property, Then he turned around and the same time sold it to a David Sherwood.

Another possibility I had was that this was some of the land that Thomas 1 had given to his grandsons Nathaniel and John. He divided 50 acres somewhere in that area between the two of them. Would need to go through more deeds than we have so far to find that out and it is too costly to do so.

So my whole thesis here is that the John who went to PA was the John who was involved with the Popple/Poplar Plains land. There seems to be no other viable answer.

Thomas Fitch and Anne Stacie
John Fitch and Rebecca Lindall
Nathaniel Fitch and Elizabeth ________
    children:
    John, Lindell, Elizabeth, Abigail and Mary
John Fitch and Elizabeth Beers Fitch Ellis
    Children:
    Nathaniel, John, Elizabeth, Susanna
John Fitch and Elizabeth Lockwood married 1766
    Children:
    John Jr., Gideon, Susanna

Believe that John, Jr. died in 1792 in CT sometime after the family moved to PA.
Possible that Susanna married Billy Finch in 1785 before the move to PA
The other conflict might be that Susanna, dau. of Matthew, married Billy Finch.
We know Gideon finished his years in Wyoming Co., PA

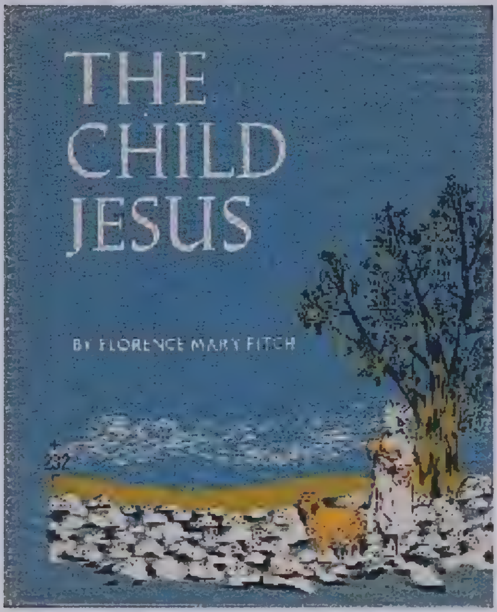
The Child Jesus

by Florence Mary Fitch



The Child Jesus by Florence Mary Fitch. (New York, NY: Lothrop, Lee and Shepard Company, Inc., 1955) Dr. Fitch (1875-1951), No. 7544, was the only child of Rev. Franklin Solomon Fitch, No. 4897, who had obtained his Doctor of Divinity degree from Oberlin College, Ohio. She graduated from the same college in 1897, and then received a master's degree from the University of Munich and a doctorate from the University of Berlin.

From 1904 to 1940, a career spanning 36 years, Florence was Dean of Women and Professor of Biblical Literature at Oberlin. The college archives hold a seven-foot collection of her papers. After retirement, Florence wrote nine children's books on world religions. Among her best known was One God: The Ways We Worship Him. This author's copy is from the 29th printing in January 1973.

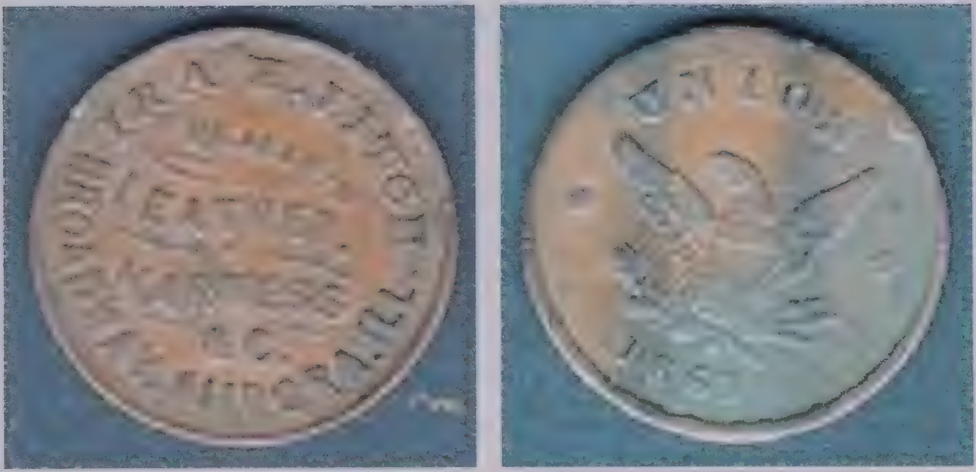
Civil War Token

of Ira H. Fitch



A Civil War Token, issued in 1861 by Ira H. Fitch, No. 1588. The obverse reads "Ira H. Fitch, Broadway, Aurora, Ill, Dealer in Leather Harness &c." The reverse, with a large American eagle emblem, reads "Union 1861."

During the Civil War, a shortage of coins developed in the north and east, as people hoarded hard currency, in fear of inflation. As a result, merchants found it difficult to make change for their customers. Some, like Ira Fitch, issued their own tokens, which customers were willing to accept, based on their confidence in the merchant's ability to redeem them in the future.

Gary Boyd Roberts

New England Historic Genealogical Society

Gary Boyd Roberts, Senior Research Scholar and Special Assistant to the Executive Director of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, writes a frequent column for the NEHGS publication Nexus, called "Notable Kin." These columns provide the ancestry for many well known statesmen, industrialists, artists, and others. During his research, Mr. Roberts has come across several interesting Fitch connections, most of whom (usually because they descend from Fitch daughter lines) are not included in "Descendants of Rev. James Fitch." He has kindly made these descendancies available for this web page. In each case, we begin with the last numbered person included in the genealogy.

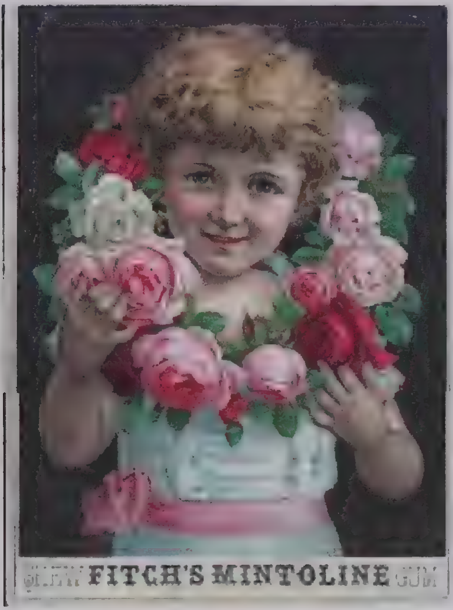
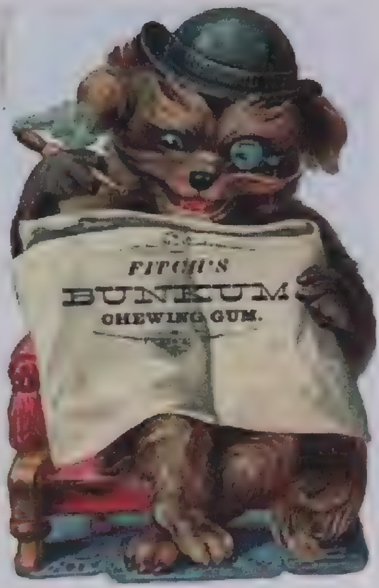
Fitch's Chewing Gum





Fitch's Chewing Gum was the invention of Asa M. Fitch (1850-1923), No. 5057. In 1870, after experimenting in his kitchen, he produced a gum, which he called "Taffy-Tulu." Although initial response was discouraging, he traveled the country promoting his product. As his gum began to catch on, he built a factory in Lexington, IN, and when that burned down, he built another at Seymour, IN.

Illustrated here are two of his brands of chewing gum, "Mintoline" and "Bunkum." He also manufactured "Tulip" and "Blackstrap" gums until he retired in 1918.

Cookie's Joseph

Date of Import: Aug 21, 2001

Joseph Fitch served in the war of 1812, Hardesty's hx p. 24. Settled inMeigs County, Ohio

Joseph was born in Connecticutt and moved across country, living in Buffalo, Erie County, New York, where son Madison was born in 1810. In about 1813, they lived in Garden Flats, Indian Reservation owned by MaryJemmison. They lived there about 5 years. Joseph is supposed to have served in the War of 1812, probbly while the family was at the reservtion, but, I have so far found no record. They then moved to Ashtabula County, Ohio, where his father-in-law Isaac Miller, lived. He stayed there only a short while, from the fall of 1817 until sometime before Joseph purchased 50 acres of land from Emmor Lane in Thompson,Geauga County, Ohio. After his wife, Permelia, died on June 09, 1836, we find a marriage for Joseph Fitch to Jane Jackson, September 30, 1836. In the 1850 Meigs County, Ohio census, Joseph, age 68, a farmer born in Connecticut is listed with wife named Mary, age 55, born in England.

In 1855, at age 73, Joseph and Mary started out overland with a horse and wagon for a new home in the North Star State of Minnesota. On Monday, the first of October, Joseph took sick. They spent a couple o fdays with a farmer, Mr. Sigler, and then went on with Joseph in a bed inthe back of the wagon and Mary driving the horses. They only made 12miles that day and stopped and Allen H. Brass's tavern in North Township,Lake County, Indiana, where Joseh died at 5 AM on the 8th of October1855. There was no graveyard nearby, and Mary didn't want him buried on a stranger's farm. Mary had him taken to the nearest graveyard for aproper burial, which was in Thornton, Cook County, Illinois. Here she had a fine storn placed on his grave, which is still standing in good shape, (a picture is in my file.) Mary wrote to Joseph's son, Madison, telling him of the circumstances of his father's death. She asked that letters to her be directed to her brother, Joseh Crouders, Montville, Geauga County, Ohio, so her maiden name must have been Crouders. Her father made the trip to Indiana to bring her home. She was very sick too, for a long time afterwards.

In his lifetime, Joseph lived in Connecticut, maried a girl fromVermont, either in Vermont or New York, lived in Buffalo, Erie County,New York, Ashtabula County, Ohio, Geauga County, Ohio, Meigs County,Ohio, and was on his way to Minnesota, when he died in Indiana and was buried in Illinois. He covered a lot of territory and saw a lot of thiscountry before he died.

received this from David W. Tourison, Cheyenne, Wyo. How we became in email contact, with one another, has LONG escaped me. He does have FITCH ancestry, back to Mattias St. John, and Elizabeth Seeley. Some FItch CONNECTION, in his TREE, somewhere. Will ask him to remind me.

Did locate, for sure, the WILLIAM K. Fitch, listed below. Remember seeing the others, somewhere. Not in this data base, surprisingly enough. Hard for me to imagine THAT a FITCH came along that I neglected to ADD, even tho yet to find THE connection.... ..

Went BOOM, outside, trying to walk around the mess outside the patio construction. Was able to get up, so ALL is still OK. YES !!! THEY did make a much wider path.

If this is the Joseph we are looking for he had two boys born between 1800 and 1810 and he himself was 26 or under. Our notes say he was born 1783 meaning he would be 27 years old so this is close. Where is his wife? His children are listed to be

1. Madison Lorenzo Dow Fitch, born 1810 in Buffalo
2. John Watson Fitch born 1808
3. Cyrenus Fitch no birth date given
4. Irene Miller Fitch no birth date given

So the J. Fitch listed above does have 2 boys born 1800-1810 and his age is close. Just wonder what happened to mom. "Cookie's" genealogy does not give a date of Permelia's death or where it was. She may have been back in PA for a time.

Listing not complete for females – she may have been alive & on the original

According to Jacobus, my 6th Great Grandfather Matthew SHERWOOD, who married Mary FITCH, was "Capt., Fairfield County Troop raised for war service, Apr. 1690". Was this war service connected with the King William's War? Is there a book available or history of this Troop at this time available? Thank you.

Looking for information about parents of Daniel Smith born in Danbury, CT in 1729. Daniel Smith was married to Ruth Fitch in 1760, born in Norwalk,CT in 1739, a daughter of Theophilus and Lydia (Kellog) Fitch. Daniel helped guide the British on their raid on Danbury in 1777 during which all the town records were destroyed, including his own! Daniel and son Clapmen arrived in St John, New Brunswick in 1783 as Loyalists, bringing with them two slaves who were given their liberty but stayed with the family. Daniel Smith resided in New Milford, CT, where he ran a public house, before fleeing to New York in 1779 and then to Canada in 1783.

Ruth, sister to John Fitch born 1740.

I too am a descendant of Thomas Sherwood (Fairfield County). There is a little book called "Sherwoodiana" by Beatrix Carlson. She mentions" Thomas Sherwood and his wife Mary Fitch Sherwood were witnesses at the trial of Good Dame Knapp".She also says, it was" Mary Fitch who walked to the Gallows with her to prevent the mob from desecrating her body". Her reference is "Powers -Banks," Genealogy,-Trial of Good Dame Knapp.
I suggest finding a copy of it It is very interesting. I think the Fairfield County Historical Society has a copy!

I do not know the name of Susanna (Lockwood) Dickinson's mother, but I see that you don't have Susanna's name listed, so there must be another Robert Lockwood. It is interesting that many of the same surnames that you listed were used for Nathaniel and Susanna's children as well. I guess I will need to keep checking.
Thank you.

FROM KAREN Fitch's LINE

Hullo there yourself, super searcher Betty .... YUP !!! As you know, it do bee my aunt Anna.... Dale and Anna were married in Albion, Noble Co., Ind. How's come married in Albion, is a mystery. BOTH were living in Elkhart Co., Indiana.

My cousin Larry lives about an hour away from me. He chooses to remain apart from any of his family, including me. IF I call him, he does speak, and pleasantly, to me. We have virtually no contact. AND, he speaks not of his ancestry, parents, etc. He said that when his father died, after having to take care of both his mom and dad before they died, he no longer wanted to think about it. I do know that he said that his father did have the TEETERS family history. When they moved to California it became a choice of keeping the history or a family clock. The clock won....

Daniel Patterson, son of William and Abigail, born 5 Jan. 1758

Harmon Fitch died 1 March 1813 in his 19th year (born c. 1794)

Nancy Fitch of Norwalk, married Thomas Hart Taylor of New York, 9 May 1798

Looking for JOSEPH FITCH who married PERMELIA MILLER and was in the 1810 census of New York, found in Buffalo.

J. Fitch	025	Oneida County	1810 census
Joseph Fitch	308	Queens County	1810 census
Joseph Fitch	077	Cayuga County	1810 census

Otsego, Oneida, and Cayuga Counties are in the middle of the state and nowhere close to Buffalo. Queens is in New York City.

J. Fitch #129 in Niagra County has in his household:
2 males under 10
0 males 10 to 16
1 male 16 to 26
0 males 26 to 45
0 males over 45
0 females listed (under 10)

Explanation given in census book the female list is cut off so only the 1st column appears in the book. Would have to look at film to see where the wife is.

If this is the Joseph we are looking for he had two boys born between 1800 and 1810 and he himself was 26 or under. Our notes say he was born 1783 meaning he would be 27 years old so this is close. Where is his wife? His children are listed to be

1. Madison Lorenzo Dow Fitch, born 1810 in Buffalo
2. John Watson Fitch born 1808
3. Cyrenus Fitch no birth date given
4. Irene Miller Fitch no birth date given

So the J. Fitch listed above does have 2 boys born 1800-1810 and his age is close. Just wonder what happened to mom. "Cookie's" genealogy does not give a date of Permelia's death or where it was. She may have been back in PA for a time.

JAMES FITCH AND ABIAL METCALFE ... from Salisbury, CT.

Rev. James Fitch	1622-1702	m. Priscilla Mason

James Fitch	1709-1760	m. Abial Metcalfe 1709-

3.	Jabez Fitch	8-11-1738
4.	Sybil Fitch	9-13-1743

6.	James Fitch	3-17-1747
7.	Joseph Fitch	10-17-1749
8.	Nathaniel Fitch	8- 7-1752

There was possibly a James that was born in 1740 and died young.

The following is what we know about this John: (son of James & Abiel

He was born Nov. 18, 1745
According to RLF, John was a Private who marched on the Lexington Alarm, April 19, 1775 (at 30 years), from Bradford, MA and served 4 days.
He then joined Capt. Ingersoll's Co., David Brewer's 9th Reg. and served from May 22 to August 7, 1775.
Later he served in capt. Ephraim's Fitch's Co., Col. Hopkin's Reg. from July 15 to Aug. 3, 1776.
Still later he served from June 29 to Aug. 29, 1779

At this time this John is still open as a possibility for "our John". The age is about right, he has a Nathaniel as a brother, also a Joseph and a William. Those names were carried down in our John Fitch family.

Until we find out who he married, or if he was married at all, and perhaps when and where he died, will hold the slot open as a possibility. tho unlikely.

The fact that he was living in Salisbury, CT., on the farm that was finally purchased by Capt. John Fitch of Windham after Ebenezer died and the land was given to Ebenezer's sons of which some were under the guardianship of John Fitch, and that this same John Fitch had shares in the Susquehanna Co., owning land in the Wyoming Valley in PA, makes this also a possibility. His father moved off this land that had belonged to Ebenezer and bought his own place, but still stayed in Salisbury. John Fitch married Ebenezer Fitch's daughter Alice, who was his cousin, So there was a connection between these Fitch families. So we need to find out what happened to this John. Look for marriage, death, baptism, and other things about him if it can be found. James Fitch and Abiel lived on the Salmon Kill, and moved in 1749 south of the town near Beaslick Pond. Was constable there.

1790 Census shows a John Fitch or Harwinton with a family miles from Rochester, where we left the canal. I neglected to notice Rochester at the canal, a town of 3,000 population, many fine stores and houses, only eight or ten years ago, only a few solitary houses, comprised the whole city. The canal crosses the Genesee River at this town by an acqueduct on 7 arches. Two miles below the town, this river has two falls. Later, on the 21st we reached Buffalo. On the 22nd our party went to an Indian village of the Buffalo tribe, in number about 600. Many are unable to speak English or to enjoy any of the comforts of civilized life. They have popular old Chief, "Red Jacket" who is not (to use the words of the Indian who spoke to me of him) 'he not very much good, he get drunk some.time.'

"We rode two miles further to see "Red Jacket" but he was not at home. His wife invited us into the house, a one story log house with one room—a few common chairs, a table, two beds on rough board bedsteads, a log set upright with the end scooped out to the size of a large bowl for the purpose of pounding corn, some pots etc.

Niagara Falls in 1824

"We went in the afternoon to Black Rock and crossed the Niagara River and rode 17 miles to Niagara Falls. The water is very rough and deep, a very green color and abounds with fish. No image or story can do the Falls justice. On the 25th we went about 7 miles to visit the Tuscarora Indians, saw and conversed with Cusick, the chief, who speaks and reads English perfectly. He is 64 years old and lame with rheumatism.

"These Indians dress variously, some with blankets, and barefoot, others had moccasins and piece of blue cloth, the size of a blanket with many silver trinkets, in their ears and silver or plated bands an inch wide around their hats. The tribe consists of 300 and they have 6,000 acres of land. We left the Falls for the steamboat in Lake Ontario, passing on the way the half finished monument of General Brock on Queenstown Heights: now about 30 feet high—one third of the height intended. Our passage "up" Lake Ontario occupied two days and two nights. When we reached Ogdensburgh, no boats were to be had so we took a stage to Montreal. The Parish church, as it is called, is very large and splendid but it is to be taken down and a new one built to be 150 feet by 100 feet and $250,000 has been appropriated to start the construction of the new church which, when finished, will for richness and elegance, exceed anything of the kind this side of the Atlantic. Some of the houses in Montreal are large, many of one and two stories and generally with outer doors and window shutters of iron. The streets are narrow and the sidewalks only sufficient for two persons, population about 20,000."

The Fitch Family

In 1785 the Fitch family came from Wilton and Norwalk, Conn. and selected four farms in what was then Ballston (but is now Greenfield) at a place since called St. John's corners about four miles north west of Saratoga Springs. From the Kayaderosseras Creek they journeyed some five miles or more into the wilderness, marking the trees on either side the better to find their way back.

They returned to Connecticut and the year following Ebenezer Fitch, Giles Fitch, Captain St. John, who married Hannah Fitch, their sister, and a Mr. Smith with their four families removed from Connecticut to this county and tarried a few days with their friends at Ballston. Giles Fitch had previously married the daughter of Thaddeus Betts of Ballston and in May, 1786 the party started from the residence of Mr. Betts to erect their log-cabin in the wilderness. Ebenezer Fitch selected the north-west corner of 200 acres, later in 1798, he conveyed his portion to Ephraim Bullock, the grand-father of Judge Augustus Bockes. Giles Fitch selected the south west corner, Captain St. John, the north-east corner and Mr. Smith the south-west corner.

Shortly after this Major Jabez Fitch also moved from Fairfield, Conn. hence the name Fairfield which was given originally to a part of the present town of Milton. Jabez Fitch purchased about 500 acres from Dirck Lefferts and built on the spot now known as Locust Grove, two miles north-west of Saratoga. Soon after Jabez Fitch built a grist and saw mill on the creek near Locust Grove. This was the first mill built in this section of the country, but it has long since gone to ruin, but in 1850 I recall well, seeing the tumbled down mill and the old water wheel.

These three Fitch-es were all brothers and were the only sons of Ebenezer Fitch who was a son of Governor Thomas Fitch of Connecticut. Major Jabez Fitch, Captain St. John and Giles Fitch served in the Revolutionary war, the former two as officers and the latter as a private.

Hannah Fitch, the daughter of Ebenezer was born on her father's farm Sept. 9, 1787 and was the third female child born in this section of the county, or north of the Kayaderosseras, the first one having been Mary Stafford, born March 7, 1786, and the second, Sarah Waterbury, born in Greenfield, April 19, 1787. Hannah Fitch married Alpheus Bullard of Schuylerville. Among her sons were General E. F. Bullard, formerly of Saratoga Springs and David A. Bullard of Schuylerville. Ebenezer Fitch erected the first frame building in the town of Greenfield.

In this house Judge Augustus Bockes was born in 1817. In 1798 Ebenezer Fitch removed to the East bank of Fish Creek and bought the farm south of Stafford's bridge where his son, Major Edward Fitch, resided until his death, May 29, 1875. He was born at St. John's corners Greenfield in 1794. He was a model of the old school country gentleman. His residence, a handsome brick structure is still standing. I remember as a young man I spent many days and nights and enjoyed the hospitality of the major's delightful company, and his entertaining family.

Issac Y. Ouderkirk

Issac Y. Ouderkirk, was well-known in the furniture business, at first being associated with his brother, and later himself occupying a store near Ford's restaurant. Mr. Ouderkirk was born July 14, 1839 in Schenectady, but had resided in this city since 1867. He had served as Town Clerk, assessor and supervisor of the town. He died Sept. 12, 1917.

Frederick F. Blackall

Frederick F. Blackall was born in this city, June 18, 1852, a son of Benjamin and Anna Carr Blackall. When a young man he took up railroading and became a fireman on the New York Central railroad in 1873. Later he was fireman on the Delaware and Hudson from 1874 to 1877. Later he was locomotive engineer on the Queen and Crescent Railroad now Louisville and Nashville. His death occurred May 12, 1917.

Early County Newspapers

Saratoga County since its existence has had many papers, which continued, some for a longer and some for a shorter period. The Saratogian and The Ballston Journal, are the two which have served the public longest.

The first newspaper in Saratoga county was issued June 14, 1798 and was the present Ballston Journal, appearing for its first issue under the name of Saratoga Register or Farmer's Journal, printed every Wednesday morning by Increase and William Child at Court House Hill, about two miles south of Ballston.

For 129 years the paper established by the Messrs Child has appeared regularly every week. The name of the paper has been changed several times but for the last eighty years has been known as the Ballston journal. In April, 1800, the firm of Increase and William Child dissolved, William becoming the sole proprietor. Mr. Child continued the paper under its original name until September 27, 1808, on which day it was issued under the name of the Independent American. In 1811 Mr. Child sold to James Comstock and soon, after the printing office was moved to Ballston

With the past article in mind, it may easy to see why the pioneers and Nathaniel had to move West if they were to continue on with life. With families of 8 to 15 children and farms of 200 acres or less there would not be that much to inherit from their parents. There would usually be just one son who would get the home place and then take care of his aging parent or parents until their death.

We know the first Nathaniel Fitch had 241 acres in Pennsylvania. We also know that Seymour, the oldest son, ended up with the farm and took care of his mother until she died. We also know that Giles and Nathaniel both must have had some training in blacksmithing and that they started a business in Pennsylvania in that business and Nathaniel felt that there was not enough business for both of them in that area so he finally took off for Indiana.

On second thought, I believe maybe it was Spencer who took care of his mother until her death. Any way with five boys to inherit the land in Pennsylvania, it was necessary for some of them to move away from home.

For many of the pioneers it meant a lot of moves in the family. They may have started in New England or on the coast somewhere and then moved to Pennsylvania as John Fitch did to make his way. Then a couple generations later Nathaniel made his way to Indiana. However a lot of families went into Ohio and established homes and then next generation went on to Indiana. Like the DeLongs and the Dolls. Usually some stayed in the old home place and others moved on. It is interesting that Nathaniel and Mathias had lands in Iowa, further West, that they did not move to . Perhaps Sarah said "No" ... I have pioneered all my life and I like it here!! Although there were some in the family that did make their way to Iowa, to Kansas, to California, and to Washington. I don't believe the move was as difficult in the later days as it had been earlier though, as the mode of transportation was quicker and the mails were there to help also.

So apparently it was somewhat of a necessity for the early settlers to move on to a new location as there was not enough land left to make a living and raise another family in the old area. It is a little different now as there are many occupations that could be entered into now. But then the main occupation was farming and things related to farming and growing of food and clothing just to survive and large families had to go somewhere or live in poverty.

Then there were people who came to the United States from abroad and found that there was not enough work for all of them in the East and perhaps they had been raised as farmers in the old country and so they also heard about the lands further west and if they were industrious and had courage enough they packed up their families and moved also. There seemed to be enough land in the west for all who needed it.

What happened to the Indians at that time was not good, but much of that was brought on by the British and the French when they chose to use the Indians to fight for them against the colonists. Killing, scalping and torture (which many of them did with glee) was then in bringing out the worst in the settlers and soon it seemed just a matter of survival for both sides. Most of the settlers couldn't go back east and the Indians were being pushed further and further West. Both sides had a growing hatred for each other and that caused both sides to do horrible things to one another. Fear can do bad things to us.

Just imagine the first Nathaniel growing up, as he was born in 1781, and would have moved to Pennsylvania very shortly after that, hearing about the Wyoming Massacre where the people of that very area, on which John Fitch had his farm, had been killed and the women driven away. We do not know for sure that John might have even been there. Perhaps his first wife had been one of the people killed there, or on the trail back to Connecticut where they were forced to go. Perhaps John was off fighting elsewhere leaving only the old men and young boys to fight and protect their farms and lives. Then perhaps after he remarried "Mary" he moved his family back to the farm when things settled down some.

But the first Nathaniel would have had first hand knowledge by story if nothing else of the brutal massacre. It would not be strange for his son, Nathaniel, then to have grown up with a "healthy" fear of Indians, but still having the courage to move on West. At least he did not have a family to worry about until he married Sarah and things had calmed down in the county of Allen and DeKalb. And of course Sarah was already here when he met her, so was already a pioneer in early DeKalb County.

Re: Descendants of John Fitch

Posted by: Stephen T. Squires Date: December 26, 1999 at 03:00:39
In Reply to: Descendants of John Fitch by Susan Gibbs 478 of 540 Go

I have been researching the Norwalk, CT family origins of "Simeon Fitch" of Coxsackie NY, his brother Silas, of Fabius, NY, etc---mid 19th century. Am interested in ALL "FITCH" connections to HUDSON, NY (opposite Coxsackie on upper Hudson River)!! Hudson NY was founded in late 18th century by a consortium of whaling captains who migrated from Nantucket, MA, making it a significant WHALING port on the upper Hudson River! Nantucket Island, itself, was a whaling port for well over 150 years. The many whaling families at Nantucket, MA included MANY "FITCH" surnames (at least four are listed with their several voyages in Starbuck's famous HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN WHALE FISHERY, pub. 1876). Another whaling captain, named "John Squires" of Huntington Long Island, appears to be MY ancestor and was married to LUCINDA FITCH of Nantucket Island in 1765 (she was dau. to "Beriah Fitch", who was b.30Aug1713, d.4May1785, & son of "Jedediah FITCH" from the NorWICH, CT Fitch clan).
I have traced my "Squires" ancestry to Coxsackie, NY with an unknown relation, either of business &/or family, to "SIMEON FITCH" of that place, who was descended from the Fitch clan of NorWALK, CT, not NorWICH). ALL of this is VERY provocative of FURTHER mutual aid, don't you think?? CAN YOU HELP ME OUT?? from:

A new FITCH has appeared on the email scene. Her name is Jean Fitch Justice who lives in Oklahoma. Her email address was given to me by the Bill Fitch (Okla.) that is related to my great-grandfather Simeon Fitch. I told Jean that I would send along her information to you guys, to see IF you had any references that might be of assistance to her in her search.

The following is the email I received from her, with her FITCH information, and the next one is what I found and sent along to her which includes her reply to them. She, at the moment is in Minnesota, to be returning to Okla. soon. I have yet to respond to her 2nd. set of questions as been tied up trying to fix a cell phone problem. It only took me 2 1/2 days to get it back to where it will allow me to access my computer while on the road. Learning process is such a female dog, especially when tech. support knows less than I sometimes.

1. Jean wrote: My brick wall is my great-great-grandfather Henry Fitch. He was born in Ohio in 1828 (according to later census records). He married Eliza Jane Brown in February 1850 in Guernsey Co., Ohio. He deserted his family sometime after 1870 and eventually died in St. Paul, MN, in about 1904. His wife lived her last years in Chicago with her daughter. I'll send more specific information when I get home. I'd very much love to connect to the New England Fitch family since the records on that family are so full.

Just a quickie - - - Was checking my email for the last time before pulling the plug and packing this laptop into its carrying case. Makes it easier to tote to the RV that way.

I think it would be nice, for you and Jean, if you struck up an email acquaintanceship. If either of you find anything, would be interested in possibly adding it to this data base. Did check JT's books. Every time I see the name HENRY I think of Henry Fitch of Maryland and that so few have yet to be able to connect him to any line of which we are familiar.

1. I have yet to input that which I found on the internet. Here is what I sent on to Jean, which includes her responses.

Some, or all of you may already have the following information. Seems interesting that there is a SAMUEL FITCH who filed a land patent in Cochocton Co., Ohio which is only about 12 miles from the northeast end of Wills Lotus Lake. Wills River runs out of there, in and thru Guernsey Co., Ohio.

Wonder when the county lines changed? www.glorecords.blm.gov, or something similar.

Hi there. Not sure if either one of you put Lowell Haines Fitch into your database. Just received this, this am. He and I became email acquaintances via David Tourison, abt 2000. As with most of the Fitch kin so far removed, this is the first I have heard of him, for quite awhile.

I sent the obit. on to a coordinator of "Obituary Daily Times.com". David is going to have it posted on the New Jersey rootsweb site.

How are you doing. Me and Gypsy, finer than cat's fur.

Hi there Betty Lou. Received this from Cookie, this am. Me thinks we already had this, unless I failed to send it on when received in 2002. Same website as when it first arrived here. Sending along to you, just in case.

The John FITCH below, I think, is a descendant of Henry Fitch of Maryland, who has yet to be connected up to any FITCH line of which we are aware. His ancestry report follows the Last Will and Testament.

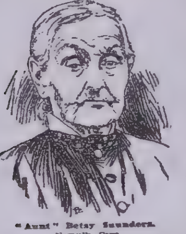
NORWALK WILL CELEBRATE

TWO HUNDRED AND FORTY-FOURTH ANNIVERSARY OF ITS FOUNDING.

Interesting Exercises to be Held Next Tuesday and Wednesday—The Celebration Under the Direction of the Sons and Daughters of the Revolution—Prominent Citizens Who Will Do Their Part—Incidents in the History of the Township.

NORWALK, Conn., June 16.—The two hundred and forty-fourth anniversary of the founding of Norwalk will be celebrated on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 19 and 20, with imposing ceremonies. These days will be observed as general holidays in Norwalk, and also in Westport, New-Canaan, and Wilton, the latter localities having once formed a portion of the original town. This celebration is largely under the control of the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, the authorities of the town of Norwalk and of the Cities of Norwalk and South Norwalk lending all possible assistance. It is intended as preliminary to a more elaborate celebration six years hence of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the town. Its purpose is both historical and memorial.

The affair is in charge of some of the most prominent men and women of the town. Among them are Samuel Daskam, Selectman of Norwalk; E. O. Keeler, Mayor of Norwalk; M. M. Lee, Mayor of South Norwalk; E. J. Hill and J. B. Hurlbutt, Sons of the American Revolution, and Mrs. E. J. Hill and Mrs. T. K. Noble Regent and Vice Regent, Daughters of the American Revolution. They are assisted by the following Chairmen of the various committees: The Rev. T. K. Noble, Literary; A. Blanchard, Educational; Dr. E. E. Smith, J. C. Randle, J. R. Marvin, and M. H. Parsons, Local; G. W. Cram, Relics; Col. Russell Frost, Colonial Ball; A. C. Golding, Seating; Senator J. H. Ferris, Decorations; Mrs. G. W. Cram, Patrons and Patronesses; Mrs. Isaac Jennings, Colonial Tea; J. P. Treadwell, H. P. Price, B. M. Andrews, and John Whittaker, Music. All these Chairmen are further assisted by committees of from six to twelve members.



"Aunt" Betsy Saunders.
Norwalk, Conn.

The exercises will begin on Tuesday morning in the public and parochial schools of the town, when the pupils will devote the session to Norwalk and its history. In the afternoon they will march to the armory, when the public exercises will begin. Over 3,000 scholars are expected to take part, and this portion of the affair is in charge of A. Blanchard of the Board of Education, assisted by Profs. W. C. Foote, H. B. Wigham, C. A. Tucker, and E. H. Gumbart. There will be speeches, music, and recitations, lasting about three hours. The evening will be devoted to speaking and music, and the following programme has been prepared: "Norwalk in Colonial Times," the Rev. Charles M. Selleck; "Norwalk in Time of Civil War," A. Homer Byington; "The Present and Future of Norwalk," the Rev. Augustus F. Beard, Secretary of the American Missionary Association and recently pastor of the Congregational Church, Paris; "Norwalk in Revolutionary Times," the Rev. Charles M. Selleck. An effort was made to secure Chauncey M. Depew, Gen. Horace A. Porter, or Henry C. Robinson, but all these gentlemen were engaged for the evening in question, and were compelled to decline. The musical selections will be as follows: "The Heavens Are Telling," from the oratorio of "The Creation," by the choir of St. Paul's Church, fifty voices; "Columbia," by the combined quartets of the Norwalk Methodist and Congregational, and the South Norwalk Baptist and Congregational Churches; "Blest God of Our Nation," by the four quartets; selected war songs, by thirty male voices, and the "Hallelujah Chorus," by St. Paul's choir.

On Wednesday evening will occur the long-looked-for colonial tea and ball, for which preparations have been in progress for over three months. The tea is in charge of Mrs. Isaac Jennings. It will be served while the ball is in progress by colored waiters attired in the costumes that servants are supposed to have worn 200 years ago. A colonial room, in charge of Mrs. G. W. Cram, will be fitted up in the fashion of an ancient drawing room, and this will be the headquarters of the younger people. The ball will be the crowning glory of the celebration. It will be held in the armory, which will be elaborately decorated for the occasion, and will be under the management of Col. Russell Frost, assisted on the floor by Cito Hatch, Dr. W. F. Acton, Le Grand Raymond, J. Arthur Pinneo, W. K. Maples, J. H. Bailey, S. L. Weed, Fred Parsons, and Harold Parsons. Following are the patrons and patronesses, under the Chairmanship of Mrs. George W. Cram: E. O. Keeler, Mayor of Norwalk, and Mrs. Keeler; M. M. Lee, Mayor of South Norwalk, and Mrs. Lee; Col. Samuel Daskam, Selectman of Norwalk, and Mrs. Daskam; Col. and Mrs. Russell Frost, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cram, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Maples, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Buren, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Treadwell, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Cholwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cole, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bishop, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Coley of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coley of New-Haven, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thompson of Wilton. Every patron and patroness will be attired in the costume of 200 years ago, as will also every participant in the dancing, until midnight. The dances will be those of ye olden time. The ball will be opened with a minuet at about 9 o'clock.

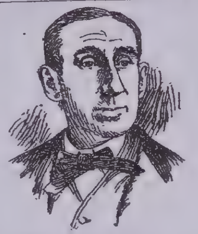
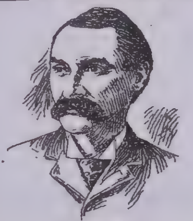
Another feature of the celebration which is attracting much attention is the relic and loan collection under the management of G. W. Cram, which will be displayed in the company rooms, on either side of the armory vestibule. An interesting exhibit is that of the Rev. W. J. Slocum, who has probably the best collection of Bibles and geographies in the State. One of the latter, an English work of the last century, in a map of Connecticut has Norwalk under the name of "Chichester." Early specimens of pottery and porcelain will be shown from the private collections of Mrs. W. K. James, Mrs. G. W. Cram, Mrs. Robert Van Buren, the Rev. J. E. Coley, Dr. Henry P. Eno and William P. Eno of Saugatuck, and Mrs. G. B. St. John, besides other and rare family heirlooms and historical papers from Govs. Thomas Fitch and "Bro." Jonathan Trumbull. The specimens exhibited by Mrs. James were formerly owned by the Ludlow and Livingston families of New-York. She also inherited many relics from the Willink family, one of whose ancestors was a banker for the United States Government in 1783, and who advanced the Government some $2,000,000 during the Revolutionary War. A bill of sale, now in Mrs. James's possession, shows that Banker Willink paid over £73,000 for his family silver. The silver was also inherited by Mrs. James, and was sent to a branch of the family in Holland. Many of Mrs. James's relics will find their way to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New-York, as a late will thus disposes of them.



Rev. Charles M. Selleck,
Orator of the evening.

Among what might appropriately be called relics is an old woman whose name is Mrs. Peter McCloskey, but who is better known as Aunt Betsey Saunders, her maiden name. She has been an inmate of the Norwalk almshouse for many years, and was born in Westport, in August, 1790, thus making her nearly 104 years old. The aged lady is quite lively, can move about her room without assistance, and remembers hearing of Washington's death.

At the conclusion of the celebration several of Norwalk's historical localities will be marked with tablets, as follows: East Norwalk, the spot where, in 1650, the first house was erected; Fitch's Point, where, July 11, 1779, the British Generals Tryon and Garth landed with a large number of troops; Flax Hill, South Norwalk, where a skirmish took place July 11, 1779, between the British and Americans, and a number were killed; Tryon's, or Grumman's Hill, Norwalk, where Gen. Tryon sat and watched the destruction, by fire, of Norwalk; The Rocks, the scene of a battle between British and Americans; West Avenue, the place where the British halted during the burning of the town; Wilson's Point, the home of the Norwalk Indian chiefs and their burial place prior to the settlement by the English.



E. O. Keeler,
Mayor of Norwalk, Conn.

Norwalk has very few Revolutionary buildings, as only six were spared at the burning of the town in 1779. Of those now standing, one or two are in good repair, notably the Burnett and Fitch homesteads on East Avenue; another, owned by J. Donovan, in South Norwalk, is partially demolished; the Isaacs place was torn down a few years ago to make room for the present Masonic Building. An old meeting house, the present City Hall, built early in the century, a dilapidated structure, is the only old public building, with the exception of the Congregational and Episcopal Churches.

Roger Ludlow of Fairfield, on Feb. 26, 1640, closed negotiations with Mahackemo and other Indian sachems for the territory between the Saugatuck and Norwalk Rivers, extending "from the sea a day's walke into the country." April 26, 1640, Daniel Partrick made an agreement with the Indians for what is now included between the Norwalk and Five Mile Rivers, and a day's walk to the north. This purchase included what is now the town of Norwalk, part of Darien and New-Canaan, all of Wilton, and portions of Ridgefield and Westport, all for the value of about £15.

In 1651, on the petition of the settlers, the General Court at Hartford gave permission for the official settlement of the town, and declared that it should be named Norwalk. There were about 20 families—probably 100 persons—who had come principally from Dorchester with the Hartford settlers, but on account of some religious trouble had decided to immigrate to the Norwalk Valley. They followed the Indian trails across the country, avoiding New-Haven on account of other troubles, forded the Saugatuck, striking in at Blue Mountain, now Cliff Street. They came to what is now called East Norwalk and built a "common house" on the present site of H. M. Prowitt's residence, where they all lived until each family could make a home of its own. Thomas Fitch built the finest residence—the Squire's house. Early provision was made for the education of children, and a teacher was called from New-London. A mill was built for grinding corn, and a fort was built on the Fort Point Road, as a means of defense against the Mohawks, who occasionally made raids upon the local Indians, who appear to have given the settlers no trouble. Another corn mill was established on what is now Wall Street, and the town built a bridge close by it. There were several learned men among the colonists. Thomas Fitch was King's Commissioner and the tutor of the Rev. Thomas Hanford was an Oxford graduate.

Norwalk has also a Revolutionary history. On July 11, 1779, Gov. Tryon, with 2,500 men, landed at Fitch's Point, and had several engagements with the citizens—one at Flax Hill and another at The Rocks, near France Street. Tryon was compelled to retreat, but destruction marked his path. Houses, churches, mills, shops, and vessels were burned. It was a thorough job, only six houses being left, and they were occupied by people who espoused the cause of the British. Washington had sent two detachments of troops from the Hudson, but they arrived too late to save the town. There were a number of friends of the Crown in the town, and many went away with the British. At the foot of Flax Hill was a large house with a handsome garden which was used at one time during the war as a headquarters for British officers, who did not interfere with the town's people, and in whose honor on their departure a grand ball was given in an old house standing on the site of the magnificent residence now owned by Mrs. C. D. Mathews of New-York. The population of Norwalk at that time was about 5,000.
